COLLEGE DEFEATS EXPLOITION DESIGN IN BATTELL PARK

Vermont Supreme Court Denies Power Privileges to Boston Concern.

Middlebury College won its case October 2 last in the Supreme Court of Vermont against condemnation proceedings filed by T. Stewart & Sons of Boston last January involving Battell Park, a portion of the 31,000 acre forest willed the College by the late Joseph Battell, according to word received at the office of Dr. Paul D. Moody, President of the College. Certain water power privileges and riparian rights along Middlebury River were sought for the development of water power.

The specific area involved is in the center of a 10,000 acre tract which was set aside by the will of Mr. Battell as a public park which was forever to be maintained for "residents of Vermont and visitors within her borders." The territory involved is the largest stand of virgin timber remaining in the state and possibly in New England. From 10,000 to 14,000 of electrical horsepower are available in this section according to reports of well-known engineers who have made surveys for the college.

Allen R. Sturtevant of Middlebury, a member of the staff of Gov. John E. Weeks and a leading member of the Vermont bar was retained by the college as senior counsel. Homer L. Skeels of the firm of Stickney, Sargent and Skeels of Ludlow, was associated with Mr. Sturtevant as was also Hall Park McCullough of New York City. Mr. McCullough is a member of the board of trustees of the college, and a member of the law firm of Davis, Polk, Wardwell, Gardner & Reed of New York.

The College controls 45 square miles of the total of 57 square miles which comprises the drainage area involved. The trustees have frequently refused offers for the tract feeling that the construction of a power development would violate the terms of Mr. Battell's will and be a breach of public trust, the Park being under the perpetual management of the College board.

WOMEN'S COLLEGE ENJOYS PLAY DAY

First Ever Held in New England; Seventy Visitors From U. V. M.

The Women's Athletic Field Saturday was the scene of the first Play Day ever held in New England. The "M" Club and W. A. A. were hostesses to about seventy representatives from the University of Vermont.

Following the arrival of the guests from U. V. M., a buffet lunch was served in the Recitation Hall by members of the Home Economics department. At two-ten assembly was called, and participants and spectators were welcomed by Rose Marchiano, president of the W. A. A., and divided into teams. It was not the object of the day to encourage intercollege rivalry, and in accordance with this idea, each team was composed of both Vermont and Middlebury women. A period of twenty minutes was given for organization before any of the events were held.

The four teams: Green, Gold, Blue and White were captained respectively by Mary Tudhope (M), Catherine Bassett (V), Sigrid Manty (M), and Lucy Morgan (V). Five points were given the Green team for promptness in the first event. The athletic program included relays, basketball throw, rope jump, hockey, volley ball

Davis, Chatterton, Newcomb, Pierce and Waite for the first bass; E. R. Allen, C. W. Allen, R. H. Amerman, G. W. Davis, Dubois, Hinman, Mann, Nelson and Riccio for the second bass.

Men who will fill the vacant berths are Ringo, Taylor, Hartwell, Witherell, Hanson, Claflin, Davenport, Doty, Hermann, Berry, Woodward, Webber, Heney and Schmidt.

The second tour will include the annual New England Intercollegiate contest in Boston on the evening of March 1. Other concerts will be given en route.

The third and last trip will include concerts at Beaver College, Jenkintown, Pa., and other eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey cities.

Possible concerts in Vermont and Connecticut are also under consideration. The annual home concert will be given, as usual, late in the season.

Best Guessers Get Most A's Says Sociology Professor

(Reprint from the Wesleyan Argus of October 1, 1928)

A rather amazing statement was recently made by Dr. Herbert N. Shenton, the new chairman of the Sociology department at Syracuse University, at an all-university convocation. "Students who are the best guessers get the A's," declared Dr. Shenton, and added, "Those who cannot guess quite as well get the B's, and those who guess, but not with any degree of accuracy, do not pass."

In closing his remarks, Dr. Shento stated that "scientific advancement and intellectual awakening are in the proportion of people's ability to guess correctly, and make the right choice." It has been suggested that potential Phi Beta Kappa men use as their seminar reading book, "Ask Me Another."

ARCHERY PRACTICE BEGUN BY WOMEN ON HOCKEY FIELD

The first archery practice of the season was held Thursday, with approximately sixteen women on the hockey field ready for instruction. Clarissa Pierce '30, head of archery for the coming year, found her group to consist of mostly amateur archers, but at the end of two hours practice, encouraging progress had been made. The equipment was incomplete, but the promise of more and better arrows in addition to another target and a steel bow brought new enthusiasm.

The object of these first hours was not a high score, but intensive practice, with the selection of a team to represent Middlebury in the archery contest on Play Day. After Saturday morning's two hours of practice, the following girls were chosen to arch in the afternoon's contest: Marion Simmons '31, Mary Tudhope '29, Caroline Allen '30, Marion Cruikshank '30, Elizabeth Merriam '32, Alice Cady '32, Virginia Cole '31, Martha Kingman '32; with Emeline Freeborn '29 substitute, and Sara Harnden '32 scorer and messenger. With a fine start, improved equipment and the enthusiasm of the archers, a successful season is anticipated.

Howe and Langmaid Star In Subduing Panther Eleven.

MIDDLEBURY LINE HARD TO PENETRATE

Purple Forward Passing Game Completely Baffles Blue Team.

By WARD S. YUNKER

A desperately fighting Middlebury football team held Williams even for the first half on Weston field, Williamstown, Saturday, but could not withstand the power of the Purple attack in the second half and went down to a 20 to 0 defeat. The Blue and White fought stubbornly, but Williams, led by the fleet halfbacks, Howe and Langmaid, flashed a pretty forward passing game which completely baffled the Middlebury secondary defense.

The Panther line showed to good advantage during the entire game and only meager gains could be made in any of the plays through the line. Occasionally Howe or Langmaid got away for a jaunt around end, but for the most part, Williams gained ground via the air. With Howe throwing the passes and either Langmaid, Ashby or Williams on the receiving end,

Penalties were handed out freely to both teams. The officials were on the job every minute and nothing of any consequence got by them. Williams was frequently penalized for illegal use of hands and the Panther lost ground a number of times by being offside.

First Period.

Captain Anderson, of Williams, kicked off to Johnson who bobbled the ball momentarily on Middlebury's 20 yard line, and then raced to the 32 yard line before being tackled by Williams. Smith made 5 yards off tackle. A line play failed to gain and Huntington punted to Putnam on Williams' 20 yard line. A line play yielded no ground and Howe punted, the ball rolling to Middlebury's 10 yard line where it was downed by a Williams player. Line plays failing to gain, Huntington punted to Putnam who caught the ball on Middlebury's 49 yard mark and ran it to the 44 before being downed. After gaining 4 yards on the 3 line plays, Howe kicked over the goal line and it was Middlebury's ball on her own 20 yard line. Huntington punted to Williams' 48 yard line. Howe and Langmaid made it first down for Williams on Middlebury's 42 yard stripe. Howe made a jaunt of 16 yards around end, Whitman being hurt on the play. The Panther stiffened and Howe kicked out of bounds on the 8 yard line. An exchange of punts ended the period. Score: Williams 0, Middlebury 0.

Second Period.

An exchange of boots and a fifteen yard penalty against Williams gave Middlebury the ball on her own 28 yard line. A pass from Willis was incomplete and a second was intercepted by Langmaid who ran to the Blue and White 26 yard line. A pass, Howe to Langmaid, put the pigskin on the 4 yard marker, but Middlebury stiffened and Williams was penalized 15 yards for illegal use of hands. Two passes were incomplete and the Panther took the ball. Huntington punted to Putnam who raced from his own 37 yard line to Middlebury's 36 before being tackled. Langmaid and Howe made a first down. Middlebury then stiffened and took the ball on downs. Middlebury was penalized 15 yards and Huntington booted to the 30 yard line. Williams made a first down, but was penalized 15 yards. Putnam made 8 yards through center

Darwin to the contrary, if there is any relation between the dog which visited chapel Sunday afternoon and some of the undergraduates who were also there, the connection is so remote that the students will never catch up with the dog.

THE "CAMPUS."

"There's a mistake in the Campus" is a remark which we hear rather frequently and they do occur with surprising regularity. Although each error is brought to our attention several times we think that almost everyone realizes that they are more or less inevitable, depending largely on the amount of time we have in which to write and proofread the story. We also realize that the criticism is meant to be constructive.

But it doesn't do much good to tell the business tryout who leaves the paper at your door that the football captain's name is spelled wrong or that there is a grammatical error in the editorial. Neither does it help matters any to ask the editor why you didn't get your copy of the paper or why the movie advertisement didn't appear.

Although not boasting a very large circulation compared with some other undergraduate newspapers, the Campus does have two distinct boards; an editorial board whose duty it is to write the copy, read proof and get the paper to press, and a business board whose duty it is to secure advertisements in time for publication, take the paper from the press, fold and deliver it, and collect and pay all bills.

Each board is also subdivided, every member having a certain job to do as outlined in the masthead above. If he fails in his task, he is the one to blame, if he does it especially well he should receive the credit. Besides those whose names appear in the masthead, each board has a staff of tryouts who do a large share of the work under the direction of the various members on the board.

The editor-in-chief is directly responsible for the editorial column although other members of the board sometimes contribute to it. He also has general supervision over the entire paper. The managing editor however is in charge of the news end of the paper. It is his duty to see that stories are written, proofread and to decide what shall be printed and what left out. The women's editor and sports editor have charge of their respective departments although much of the actual writing of women's and athletic news is done by assistant editors and tryouts.

Any criticism offered in a constructive spirit to the proper member of the board will be appreciated and if something is done especially well don't forget to tell us so. We appreciate that too.

VOTE.

Remember November 6. Make arrangements to vote by mail. If there is any one class of American citizens that is qualified to vote intelligently without blind allegience to any particular party, it is the student class. Not yet entangled with business and social interests which might sway his judgment, the student is nevertheless qualified by age and training to pick out the man who is best qualified for the position sought.

WAMBA SAYS

The noises at chapel last Sunday brought one into the atmosphere of the local Opera House. The master immitators of the canine whelp must have cut, for that was the only noise not heard.

An addition to the gymnasium should be built to accommodate the stag line at the Saturday night informals.

He overheard a conversation in which the following remark was made, "That building over there should not be called the Chi Psi construction, it should be the D. U. obstruction."

"When the cat's away the mice will play." Were you in chapel Sunday?

The cheering at the Freshman game Saturday sounded as if that was "the morning after the night before" for everybody; of course there were only about ten women there, but how else could it be when they all had to be on the other side of the Hill playing; it was their Play Day you know.

Don't the girls look cute romping about the campus with their bloomers on?

Wouldn't college be an awful place if you couldn't borrow things?

And who can tell us where Flat Rock is?

WOMEN HAVE BACON BAT.

The Young Women's Christian Association held an informal sing and bacon bat at Flat Rock near Otter Creek Tuesday afternoon, October 2. Most of the Women's college was in attendance, the Juniors seeing to it that their little sisters were there. The girls sang many camp and college songs, ending with the Y. TO FRATERNITIES

The following statement was issued by the Executive Committee of the National Interfraternity Conference at its meeting held last spring:

"The attention of the Executive Committee of the National Interfraternity Conference has been called to the fact that at many colleges and universities rough-house fraternity initiations are again becoming matters of common occurrence. The executive Committee believes that under the circumstances it would be wise to call attention again to the attitude of the Interfraternity Conference, as set out in a resolution of the Conference adopted in 1920, which reads as follows:

" 'WHEREAS, it appears from reports here that hazing in fraternities still exists, arising from practises in initiations, either in real or fake initiations, either before, or during the ceremonies of initiation, and

" 'WHEREAS, ahe Interfraternity Conference has at divers times and by resolution in 1920 Conference, condemned these practices,

" 'THEREFORE, be it

" 'RESOLVED: That it is the sense of this Conference, that this Conference condemn these practices of rough-house initiations, whether fake initiations or a part of the real initiations, whether preceding or made a part of the ceremonies, incident to initiation, at any time or in any form.

" 'We consider these practices as silly and dangerous, as opopsed to the dignity and ideals of college fraternities, and injurious to their good name, and we recommend that all fraternities take steps to eliminate any such practice from their own organizations, if same be indulged in, and further

" 'That a copy of this resolution be sent to each fraternity in the Conference, that a copy be spread on the minutes of this Conference, and a copy be sent to Banta's Greek Exchange.' "

Miss Marchiano thanked the visitors at the close of the day for their cooperation and assistance, and presented the captain of the winning team with a prize. ON THE SIDE LINES

Now that we have some new cheer leaders it might be a good idea to develop a few new cheers. Also it's about time that the Alma Mater question become alive for our hymn sounds rather sad besides the songs of Amherst and Williams.

Saw more alumni at Saturday's game than students.

Coach Rattan and his U. V. M. team are having hard sledding so far this year. Looks as though it might prove fatal to meet too many big teams.

The Middlebury Freshmen aggregation seems to be more promising this year than last, and shows up some good varsity material. All it needs now apparently is a little more student support, so it would be a good idea for all those who don't go to M. A. C. to drop down to Porter Field and see Hessler's team in action next Saturday when they meet the hard playing Clark School team from Hanover.

Our lack of reserve power again showed up at Williams. Every man in the game was doing his best, but too many Purple substitutions wore the boys out. Standards must be kept high of course, but how about luding more good material from the home town, and then persuading the faculty to let them in, as is done in other colleges.

Huntington did more than share punting honors at the game. His efforts were consistently superior to those of his rival in distance and height. Long, twisting spirals they were, enabling the ends to get down almost every time. And Ted's play at tackle left little to be desired.

Gil Smith, as we are becoming accustomed to see, was again the hard running, fighting fullback as of the week previous. He lost little ground while in the game, and took the ball for gains most of the time.

Whitman played a whale of a game at center until the effects of more than three quarters hard—and hot—play forced his withdrawal. Gruggel, McNary, Keenan, Allen, Bedell, and Perry did yoeman work in the line. As none were hurt they should improve with practice, and constitute a real menace to Norwich and Vermont later in the season.

The backfield functioned well if sporadically, but their defense against passes was not up to snuff. Johnson, McLeod, Willis, Smith, Jacobs and Guarnaccia ran the ball well, and in backing up the line left nothing to be desired.

The Williams team seemed almost favored of Fortune in the completion of several of their long passes. The Blue line would surge in and the passer had to let the ball go from a tangle players and the pass would be completed. Clever playing and good coaching no doubt, but we suspect the existence of a horseshoe somewhere.

In several exchanges of punts the very field seemed to favor the Purple. A Middlebury boot would come down, strike the earth and bounce in the direction it had come. Whereas the Purple kicks had a tendency to slither along the ground towards the Middlebury goal line, if Johnson was not directly under them.

Now let's go and take M. A. C.

Clyde G. Fussell '26 is teaching at Whitefield, N. H., this year as head of the Social Science and English Departments as well as acting as Submaster. He requests that his mail be sent to Box 822, Ocean Park, Me., his home address.

PANTHER YEARLINGS OPEN SEASON BY DEFEATING PLATTSBURG 38-0

Brilliant Offense Accounts For Large Frosh Score.

BLUE STOPS FIGHTING NEW YORK MACHINE

First Game Gives Promise Of a Very Strong Eleven.

Middlebury's freshmen eleven started their season with a bang by defeating the Plattsburg Normal School on Porter Field Saturday afternoon by a 38-0 score. The Blue and White freshmen held the upper hand throughout the game, and not once was their own goal line in eminent danger. Coach Hessler seems to have turned out a good team although Saturday's game could not be used as a basis of their prowess. The Plattsburg boys were full of fight and pep, but were apparently "green" and light. The game was marred by numerous minor injuries which were only mute evidence of the manner in which the boys were "eating each other up."

The game began with Plattsburg booting the ball to Middlebury's 22 yard line where Duquette received it and ran it back to the opponents 34 yard line. After a series of line bucks resulting in short gains, Middlebury lost the ball on a fumble. Unable to gain, Plattsburg kicked and the frosh returned the ball to the Normal School boys' 54 yard line. Another series of short line bucks and dashes around end advanced the ball to Plattsburg's 24 yard line where the freshmen again lost it on another fumble. Plattsburg punted out of danger. Middlebury again began a march down the field and this time put the ball over for their first touchdown, Goering scoring on an off-tackle slice from the 7 yard line. The try for the extra point failed when Duquette's forward pass grounded.

Middlebury kicked off to Plattsburg and downed them on their 38 yard line. Unable to gain, the Normal School boys kicked, and the freshmen began another promenade from their 40 yard line, with Duquette and Markowski making the longer gains around end and off tackle. On a reverse end run, Hess carried the ball over for the second touchdown from the five yard line. Markowski added the extra point by a drop kick.

Plattsburg kicked off and Middlebury returned the ball to their 42 yard line. After a few very short advances, Middlebury punted from the 50 yard line. The Normal School boys returned the kick but lost ground on the exchange. The freshmen again swept down the field with Markowski and Duquette continually making long gains. Markowski finally carried the ball over from the 7 yard marker on an off-tackle plunge.

The second half was a repitiion of the first. Neither team tried much passing and the freshmen seldom found it necessary to punt. Whenever the occasion did arise, the Middlebury ends were usually well down under the kick and were able to down the receiver in his tracks. Hess scored the first touchdown of the second half on an end run from the 8 yard line. The try for point failed. The game continued with the Normal School boys making occasional short gains through the line which were of no avail, and the Blue and White backs advancing at will around the end and off tackle. Duquette scored the fifth touchdown of the game on an end run from the ten yard line. Theil added the extra point when he caught Duquette's pass over the goal line. From this point on, many substitutes entered the game slowing up the offense a trifle. However, before the game came to a close, the Frosh were able to cross the white lines for another touchdown, Duquette getting the score on an off-tackle slice from the three yard line. The try for point again failed bringing the final score to 38-0 in the Freshmen's favor.

The Frosh showed exceptional backfield strength and a sturdy line. Duquette was particularly effective in his fleet dashes around end and Markowski added much ground on his slices off tackle. Time and again, the line opened huge holes for the backs to dash through and on on the defense they often succeeded in breaking through their opponents and spilling the Plattsburg offensive before it could get started.

The lineup for Middlebury:

Touchdowns, Duquette (2), Hess (2), Goering, Markowski; Points after touchdown, Markowski (drop-kick), Theil (forward pass).

Williams 20, Middlebury 0.
Amherst 7, Bowdoin 3.
Harvard 30, Springfield 0.
Princeton 50, Vermont 0.
Norwich 6, Providence 6.
Tufts 24, Colby 0.
M. A. C. 6, Bates 0.
Hamilton 14, Clarkson 0.

Coach Rattan's Vermont eleven lost its second game Saturday to a team against which they didn't have a chance. From the first the Tigers had the ball running up and down the field, first with one eleven and then with another equally good, so good in fact that the Catamounts only got two first downs in the entire game. It is very probable that the Columbia game took a lot out of the Vermont eleven in stamina and endurance. From their showing Saturday, the Catamounts will need rest and repair before again becoming a factor in the State championship.

A rejuvenated Amherst team went onto the field, expecting to beat the Maine team, but only succeeded to get one score over the line. Grosskloss was again the big man for the Lord Jeffs. The field goal, kicked by Larcom, of Bowdoin, rather disheartened the Amherst eleven, especially after Chapman, Bowdoin back, had carried the ball from his own ten yard line to Amherst's fifteen yard line.

Lead by Captain Ellis the undefeated Tufts team of last year propitiously started another season. Colby, throughout the whole game put up a dogged fight and in the final period succeeded in taking the ball for 60 yards to the Tufts 30 yard line but there they were held.

For the second consecutive time the Norwich and Providence elevens battled to a tie. Last year it was a 7 to 7 game and this year a 6-6 tie. Providence almost defeated the Cadets in the last few moments when a field goal was kicked, however the officials declared the Rhode Islanders offside and saved the day. The Norwich score came within the first three minutes of play when a pass, O'Donnell to Kane, resulted in a clean touchdown.

A superior Hamilton team defeated Clarkson at Potsdam. Hamilton in winning their second used practically the same tactics as a week before when they defeated Alfred by a line and aerial attack.

In its opening game Harvard took Springfield for a big fall. Harvard made its score by four touchdowns, one in each period, and fifteen yard drop-kick. Springfield showed no attack until the third period when it passed and rushed the ball down the field for 70 yards. Springfield made three first downs to Harvard's 22.

The Mass. Aggies won their first game when they defeated Bates at Amherst. Taking the ball for 50 yards in the first quarter the M. A. C. team was halted on the Maine twenty yard line and did not again threaten until the third quarter when Ellert put the ball in scoring position on the eight yard line after a pass. Magnuson made the tally.

HENDERSON GAINS FINAL BRACKET IN FALL TOURNAMENT

Beats Humeston in Five Sets Woodbury and Kelley Win Semi-Finals.

Donald Henderson, '29, captain of the tennis team and seeded number one, reached the finals of the championship tennis tourney by defeating Richard Humeston, '30, in five sets yesterday. The match was replete with thrills from start to finish, and had a gallery cheering at many stages. Henderson lost many points on easy shots, but at crucial moments was always on hand with the decisive stroke. The score of the match was 6-3, 3-6, 6-4, 3-6, 7-5.

At no time was the ultimate winner assured of his victory. Humeston, seeded number three, played a very good game, and forced most of the games to deuce. Especially fine were his forehand drives, many of them reaching the far corners of the courts impossible of recovery. But Henderson's speedy volleys and fast service functioned well, and gained points at decisive moments. Henderson was at set point several times in the last set when leading at 5-4 in games, but the excellent play of his opponent brought the match to 5 all before the winner was able to take the match.

Ralph Woodbury, '30, seeded number two showed a fast service and good control in beating H. Bullukian, '31, in the first semi-final. His speedy court covering accounted for many points, and Bullukian had a hard time getting the ball back when his conquerer was at top speed. The score of the match was 6-1, 6-4.

Stillman Kelley, '29, seeded number six, gave an excellent exhibition of all around ability to defeat D. Daland, '31, in the second semi-final. A baffling service that accounted for several aces, and a lightning forehand that sought the backlines with accuracy were the factors in his victory. Daland showed to advantage in the volley and trap shot, but his control was not as good as in previous matches.

Summary of the tournament to date:

First round: R. Woodbury, bye; E. Steele, bye; H. Bullukian d. C. Flagg 6-0, 6-1; R. Cook d. H. Cummings 7-5, 8-6; T. Huntington d. M. McDonald default; D. Daland d. O. Jason 6-2, 6-4; S. Kelley d. E. with the strong combination of Henry Weston '29, John Owen '30 and Fred Sherman ex-'29 are the favorites in the tourney.

HOWARD PREACHES ABOUT ACTIVE LIFE

"Participation Remedy For Evils in Politics" he Says.

Dr. Howard, College Chaplain, who led Vespers Sunday, took as his text Hebrews 11:6, "He that cometh unto God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him," and Luke 11:1, "Lord teach us to pray." He pointed out the relation between citizenship and worship.

Further Dr. Howard said, "There are many educated people who feel that, since politics are so corrupt, they cannot mingle in them. He cited an instance of a man who said that he would not soil his hands with them. But his place was not off by himself, but in the midst of them. Did not Washington, Adams, and Jefferson, when there were many who doubted the success of the government they were initiating, keep steadfastly on, putting their faith in God. And were they not rewarded?

"So it is with prayer and the church. Those who feel that the church is not playing the part it should, must help to right the evils and not give them the chance to grow greater from neglect. Cleveland, Roosevelt, and Wilson derived great benefit from church membership. Great souls like Wesley, when their contemporaries were crying that the church was corrupt, prayed, and had faith, and worked. A better church resulted.

"Why did Jesus pray? Why did Washington? It was to them a means of seeking and loving the Power that was God.

"The words of the Lord's prayer differ. It is the spirit that is always the same. It begins with humble adoration; then stresses the doing of God's will, not ours; asks that not only our spiritual but our human and everyday needs be noticed; and ends with the acknowledgement that God is supreme.

"To return to politics: When you vote, do it, not because it has become the conventional thing to do, but because you believe in democracy, and because you want your life to count in your community. And if you take your politics to your prayers it will bring you a courage and an independence of spirit that will change you and the forces around you.

"Lord, teach us to pray."

Blue Gridmen Beaten By Williams; Score 20-0

on a delayed pass and a forward, Wheeler to Eizner, put the ball on the 10 yard marker where Wheeler's attempt at a field goal failed. An incomplete pass by Middlebury and Huntington's punt to Williams 43 yard line ended the period. Score: Williams 0, Middlebury 0.

Third Period.

After Andersen kicked off for Williams, there was an exchange of punts. Williams finally got the ball on her owen 33 yard line. Putnam and Langmaid made a first down and a pass Howe to Langmaid, made another on Middlebury's 35 yard line. Howe went around end for 12 yards and then threw a pass to Ashby to put the ball on Middlebury's 12 yard line. Howe then went around end to the 2 yard line and Langmaid went over for a touchdown. Putnam failed to kick goal. Webber went into the Middlebury lineup and Smith went out. Middlebury was penalized 15 yards because Webber spoke to Chase who ran the ball from Williams' 36 yard line to Middlebury's 45 yard line. Howe made 8 yards. Standing on Middlebury's 40 yard line, Howe threw a perfect pass to Williams who caught the ball on the 11 yard line and ran the rest of the way for another touchdown. Putnam kicked goal. There was an exchange of punts after the kickoff with Williams getting the ball on her own 35 yard line. Langmaid made 28 yards in 2 plays. Howe threw an incomplete pass to end the period. Score: Williams 13, Middlebury 0.

Fourth Period.

A 25 yard pass, Howe to Langmaid, put the ball on Middlebury's 12 yard line at the start of the period. Langmaid then took it over for a touchdown on 4 plays. He added the extra point by dropkick. There was no more excitement as both teams could do no gaining and resorted to a kicking duel. Chase intercepted a Middlebury forward late in the period, but Williams was forced to punt after making no gain through the line. Wheeler then intercepted another Middlebury pass and McAllister made it first down for Williams on Middlebury's 17 yard line. Two line plays netted six yards as the game ended. Score: William 20, Middlebury 0.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN

in the blindfold cigarette test

Famous star selects OLD GOLD

"One cigarette of the four I smoked in the blindfold test was like shooting a scene successfully after a whole series of failures. It just 'clicked' and I named it as my choice. It was OLD GOLD. Which clears up a mystery, for the supply of OLD GOLDS in my Beverly Hills home is constantly being depleted. It seems that Strongheart and Rin-tin-tin are the only motion picture stars who don't smoke them."

Charlie Chaplin

MR. CHAPLIN was asked to smoke each of the four leading brands, clearing his taste with coffee between smokes. Only one question was asked: "Which one do you like the best?"

Made from the heart-leaves of the tobacco plant

How does OLD GOLD do it?

What's the secret of OLD GOLD'S winning charm? The answer is very simple. Three types of leaves grow on the tobacco plant . . . coarse, heavy top-leaves, irritating to the throat . . . withered ground-leaves, without taste or aroma . . . and the heart-leaves, rich in cool and fragrant smoking qualities. These golden-ripe heart-leaves give OLD GOLDS their honey-like smoothness. That's why so many people choose them. And that's why you too can pick them . . . even in the dark.
